This stylish 1938 brick home offers a host of indoor and outdoor living areas, most benefiting from a year-round sunny aspect.

These and the well-equipped mains gas supplied kitchen offers wonderful suburban views with Derwent estuary glimpses.

All four bedrooms are relatively spacious, several with that same diverse outlook. There are bathroom facilities on two levels with three wc's in all.

In my opinion this property's greatest attribute is a well-located titled right-of-way situated at the far corner of the allotment leading to Honora avenue.

This rear garden area can only be described as expansive and will ideally suit a young family at play or those wishing
