This 1950's family home is situated on near level ground in a prime Montagu Bay location within a very close proximity of Eastland's shopping center and Bellerive village, with Rosny college a range of schools, recreation facilities and services close by.

This home is so easily accessible, boasts mountain views, all-day sunshine and easy one-level living. The bathroom has undergone a previous upgrade and most rooms appear to be in good repair, there is also a lock-up garage and secure storage shed.

We believe this property may offer the opportunity to erect a second dwelling in the backyard. The allotment itself is approximately 835m2 in size with some 3.8 meters of access width to the back of the allotment. We also feel that a modern two-storey townhouse may possibly capture
