

3 Myella Drive Berriedale TAS

3  1  4

This property would seem ideal for first home buyers seeking an affordable, beautifully presented home.

The kitchen is new with quality appliances. The bathroom also benefits from a recent stylish renovation. The floorplan itself is super practical.

A near level generous land parcel boasts loads of off-street parking with a modern recently installed shed and so much potential for further development, either as garden and or outdoor entertainment area.

The ultra-convenient Berridale location is so easily accessed via the Brooker Highway, the waterfront, Mona Museum, Moorilla Vineyard and several council-maintained recreation areas are all within an easy walking distance. The business hub of the city of Glenorchy is within a short drive away, a host of schools are close by and local pizza is around a one minute walk from the front door.
